

Legionella bacteria detected in Chiba Prefecture bath times
Chinese officials also Legionella in five people admitted Gifu spa
Japan News November 4, 2009

Gifu Prefecture, on April 4, Green Hotel Takayama. Legionella bacteria were detected from the hot spring baths, September 30 to October 16. Sun stayed Toyama and Shiga prefectures 50 to 70 male and female five people infection, was hospitalized with pneumonia and released.

The same hotel on October 18th, the three China-Korea ministerial meeting on tourism dinner countries, officials said the Chinese government also stayed morbidity (split the bill) and the report said.

Hida October 20 health centers to inspect the hotel, found the bacteria collected from the bathtub. The hotel is a total of five locations in the bath tub had a 13, which uses a filtration system every cycle. Health center will initially instructed to not use a filtration cycle, the hotel will resume the use of the bath seat at the kitchen sink with running water.